The satisfaction of man's physical and material needs is not enough. Man is the only animal who has spiritual needs as well. Without the satisfaction of these he cannot develop his personality or realize his whole being. It is religion that satisfies his spiritual urges. Human belief in God and the presence of a spiritual world controlling his material world affords him a high ideal. To achieve this, he conforms to lofty spiritual principles. In a society where religion prevails, the spirit of sacrifice and the sense of achievement reign supreme. This can never be possible in a materialistic regime. Here the purposes for which men undergo sacrifice are low in comparison with the higher ideal of realizing the glory of God in actual practice.

Unfortunately, the present day world is becoming too materialistic and man's spiritual needs are being ignored. Consequently, his energies are being diverted into dangerous channels and he is degenerating into a lawless criminal or a self-centered brute. It is devoutly hoped that spiritual values will dominate the world in the near future because a civilization without religion is unstable and aimless. With the dawn of the new era, religion will have a permanent place of honor.

بہت سے دکھ ہماری قسمت میں لکھے ہوتے ہیں، وہ ہمیں ملنے ہوتے ہیں۔ بعض بچائیاں ایسی ہوتی ہیں کہ وہ چاہے ہمیں جتنی بھی دکھ لگیں مگر ہمیں انھیں قبول کرنا پڑتا ہے۔ انسان ہر وقت خود پر ترس کھاتا رہے، اپنی زندگی میں آنے والے دکھوں کے بارے میں سوچتا رہے تو وہ دکھ اس پر عادی ہو جاتے ہیں۔ پھر اگر اس کی زندگی میں خوشیاں آتی بھی ہیں تو انھیں دیکھ نہیں پاتا۔

Q.No.3 Please summarize the following passage into 1/3rd of its size and also give a title. (15+5= 20 Marks)

When we survey our lives and efforts we soon observe that almost the whole of our actions and desires are bound up with the existence of other human beings. We notice that whole nature resembles that of the social animals. We eat food that others have produced, wear clothes that others have made, live in houses that others have built. The greater part of our knowledge and beliefs has been passed on to us by other people through the medium of a language which others have created. Without language and mental capacities, we would have been poor indeed comparable to higher animals.

We have, therefore, to admit that we owe our principal knowledge over the least to the fact of living in human society. The individual if left alone from birth would remain primitive and beast-like in his thoughts and feelings to a degree that we can hardly imagine. The individual is what he is and has the significance that he has, not much in virtue of the individuality, but rather as a member of a great human community, which directs his material and spiritual existence from the cradle to grave.

Q. No.5 ✓ Translate the following passage into English.

(10 Marks)

پناہ گزین اس قدر تکلیف دو زندگی بسر کر رہے تھے کہ ان کے خواب بھی نا آسودہ خواہشات کی عکاسی کرتے تھے۔ وہ بے گھر تھے اس لئے انہیں اپنے ایک گھر کی شدید ضرورت تھی۔ ایک پناہ گزین نے خواب میں ایک بہت بڑی عمارت دیکھی۔ یہ اتنی وسیع و عریض تھی کہ اس کے بزاروں دروازے اور کمریاں تھیں۔ لیکن ایک دروازہ بھی ان کے لئے کھلا نہ تھا۔ یہ خواب اس مکان کو حاصل کرنے کی خواہش کو ظاہر کرتا ہے لیکن ہندو دروازہ اس کے لئے لوگوں کی نظرت کی قمازی کرتا ہے۔ یہ بات اس کے ذہن میں شدت سے پیش آتی تھی کہ کوئی بھی شخص اسے اپنے گھر میں داخل ہونے کی اجازت نہیں دے گا۔
